The Council

The Ministerial Arts and Cultural Advisory Council (“the Council”) is established by Crown prerogative.

Role of the Council

Members of the Council are appointed by the Tasmanian Government to provide cross-sectoral strategic input to Government on the arts, culture and creative industries sectors, with a focus on greater collaboration between sectors and sustaining the future growth and health of the sector as a whole.

The following Terms of Reference will be reviewed annually by the Council.

Functions

The Council shall:

1. Provide cross-sectoral expertise and input to Government on matters that span the arts, culture and creative industries sectors

2. Provide cross-sectoral expertise and input to Government relevant to developing the arts, culture and creative industries’ sectors as contributors to, and recognised as critical components of, the Tasmanian economy and community

Chair and ministerial representation

The Minister for the Arts shall chair the Council.

The Deputy Chair shall be the Secretary of the department responsible for the arts, culture and creative industries or his/her delegate.

Ministers with matters of interest relevant to the portfolio or agenda may also be invited to attend meetings of the Council.

Membership

The Council consists of culture and creative industry community members appointed at the discretion of the Minister for the Arts. Membership of the Council will be broad and represent the diversity of Tasmanian art, culture and creative industry. Membership may be through appointment or by application.

Members may include, but are not limited to, representatives of the following community groups:

- Cultural organisations
• Creative industry businesses
• Peak bodies representing the creative sector
• Individual artists

All members are appointed as individuals and not to represent a particular organisation and its views.

Membership will be regionally balanced.

Vacancies on the Council will be widely advertised and interested people will be invited to apply and participate in a selection process.

A member may hold the office of member in conjunction with State Service employment under the State Service Act 2000.

The State Service Act 2000 does not apply in relation to a member in his or her capacity as a member of the Council.

Membership Role

Members will be appointed for one, two, or three years at the discretion of the Minister for the Arts. Members may reapply on the expiry of their membership but no member may serve more than two consecutive terms. Interested individuals may apply again after a three-year break from the Council.

Membership of the Council is on a voluntary basis. Members will be reimbursed for out-of-pocket expenses incurred as a result of attending meetings or conducting other Council business as deemed appropriate under the guidelines established by the Secretary, Department of Premier and Cabinet.

Members are not expected to provide written reports on issues: input is expected during Meetings and must be clearly described in the Minutes.

With regards to Council business, Council members should engage with Tasmanian and Australian Governments through the Council, rather than directly. Media enquiries shall be directed through the Deputy Chair.

Members shall act honestly and in good faith, ensuring that confidential information received is maintained as such.

Members shall not incur any personal liability with regard to providing advice as a representative of the Council.

The Minister may terminate the appointment of a member if the member is absent from three (3) consecutive meetings of the Council, has not demonstrated appropriate engagement or has been convicted of an indictable offence.

If a member wishes to resign from the Council, a formal written notice of resignation must be submitted to the Minister.
