

United States of America

Trade and Investment Mission 2020

Overview

The Department of State Growth, together with the Office of the Coordinator-General, is planning a trade and investment mission to the United States during the first half of 2020. Tasmanian business leaders are invited to express interest in being selected to join the mission.

Dates, locations, and specific areas of opportunity for the Mission will be determined through this Expression of Interest (EOI) process. Priority will be given to those most likely to achieve commercial outcomes or strengthen the Tasmanian brand in market and can be practically achieved within the timeline of the mission.
