

I fully support Planning Matters Alliance Tasmania's Population Strategy. Population pressure is now already impacting our normal lives, infrastructure is not coping. The rush to develop Tasmania is to the detriment of the environment and our way of life. Growth is important but it is critical we get it right.

Regards,

Janice Romaszko