

There is no point encouraging population increase in Tasmania while there is a housing shortage.
Newcomers will absorb housing and escalate prices.

I submit that:

All short-term holiday rental properties must be registered.

There should be a stop to registration of any new short term holiday rental properties.

This will put more homes for sale and rent onto the housing market.

.

Jill Wright